

Hint

© 1997–2009, Millennium Mathematics Project, University of Cambridge.

Permission is granted to print and copy this page on paper for non-commercial use. For other uses, including electronic redistribution, please contact us.

September 2005

Regulars

Hint

Every capitalised syllable stands at the beginning of a line and every line has eight syllables. A hyphen indicates that a syllable is part of a longer word.

Plus is part of the family of activities in the Millennium Mathematics Project, which also includes the NRICH and MOTIVATE sites.